

Program Learning Outcomes (2025-2026)

Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies (MAICS, Korean)

Students Learning Outcomes (Upon graduation, the student will...)	Measurement	Benchmark or Target	Achievement of Outcome/Results
Articulate a theological understanding of the global mission of God and demonstrate its importance to the church.	MI500 Introduction to Missiology	Above B (86%)	Average – 90.22% (A-); 20 out of 22 students (with M.Div.) received above B.
	MI520 History of the World Christian Movement	Above B (86%)	Average – 90.35%(A-); 17 out of 19 students (with M.Div.) received above B.
Describe how the dynamic nature of the Gospel can be contextualized and communicated in words and deeds in contexts of cultural diversity to bring transformation.	MI680 Intercultural Communication	Above B (86%)	None this school year
	MI574 Cultural Anthropology for Christian Mission	Above B (86%)	None this school year
Demonstrate specialized knowledge focused on the discipline of intercultural studies and the Christian mission.	MI574 Cultural Anthropology for Christian Mission	Above B (86%)	None this school year
	MI680 Intercultural Communication	Above B (86%)	None this school year
Integrate biblical, theological, historical, and social-scientific disciplines for missional living and working in global contexts.	PT510 Spiritual Formation	Above B (86%)	Average – 98.95% (A); All 2 students received above B.
	MI640 Mission and World Religion	Above B (86%)	Average – 92.03% (A-); 23 out of 26 students (with M.Div.) received above B.
	PT580 Transformative Global Leadership	Above B (86%)	Average – 94.23% (A-); 6 out of 7 (with M.Div.) received above B.
	Mission Field work	Pass	7 out of 9 students passed
Demonstrate the research skills and writing ability to create a graduate level research paper.	GE503 Academic Research Writing	Above B (86%)	Average – 90.62% (A-); 29 out of 30 students (with M.Div.) received above B.